Boston is a great place to Shop

1. Boston is a shopper's paradise.
2. Beginning on Newbury Street, famous for enticing the rich and famous to spend, Newbury has everything from high end to cutting edge.
3. The Mall at the Prudential Center and adjoining Copley Place.
4. Downtown Crossing, near Boston Common, is a pedestrian-friendly, no cars allowed location, and a way to transition from Back Bay to Faneuil Hall.
5. See some historical sights and spend some cash while walking through Faneuil Hall. Home to more than history with many souvenir and specialty shops lining the walk outside, and a food court functioning to help you refuel on the inside.
6. Boutique shops on Charles Street, at the foot of Beacon Hill
7. Lastly, Find time to browse the new and used bookstores of Harvard Square.
